- a) the professional or ethical standards of conduct of a member;
- b) the conduct of a member which affects the honour, good reputation, interests, or work of the College.

Unless the context otherwise implies, 'member' means	Fellow, Member, Honorary Fellow or Member, Life Fellow or Member, Associate, Affiliate, Trainees and Registrars of the College, and includes any external person serving on the Board of Directors (the Board), on a committee or other entity of the Board or as a College representative.
College Complaints Officer (CCO)	is a person nominated by the College who will receive and assess the complaint initially. The CCO is engaged only for the complaint initial assessment and may deal with multiple complaints or a single complaint.

Policy Statement

1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- 1.1. The matter or complaint shall be dealt with, as far as possible, on a confidential basis and consistent with the protection offered by the legal principle of qualified privilege. The College does not, however, guarantee anonymity of those making complaints.
- 1.2. Any member against whom a matter or complaint is made is entitled to receive sufficient details of the nature and circumstances of the allegations as will allow him or her to fully respond to the allegations and as the rules of procedural fairness and natural justice may require. This may necessitate the disclosure of the identity of the complainant.
- 1.3. The member is also entitled to respond to all allegations by making written submissions to the Complaints Committee (Committee) and/or by making oral submissions at the Committee meeting or hearing at which the matter is considered.

1.4. Any member involved in a complaints process, regardless of their role, will be offered access to College-funded external counselling support.

2. COMPLAINTS PROCESS
